

Module# 1

Badminton – racket sport played by 2 players.

History of badminton

- Hanetsuki – japan - Battledore and Suttlecock
- Ancient Greace - Gloucestershire

Milestones of philippine Badminton

- 1950 International Badminton Federation
- 1952 Philippine Badminton Association
- 1962 johnny Yan and Stephen Cheng
- 1966 Triangular meen in Vietnam
- 1992 Melvin Llaned Philippine Champion
- 1995 Weena Lim & Keenie Asuncion
- 1996 Wenna Lim 1st Atlanta Olympic Games
- 1997 Weena Lim and Keenie Asuncion (bronze in sea games
- 2001 – 2002 Bangkok Kennevic Asuncion
- 2003 13th world championship

Module# 2

Benefits of Badminton

- Heart Health - Improved Mobility
- Increase Life Expectancy - Child Friendly

Facilities & Equipment

Net – 17 Feet for single 22 feet for doubles.

Shuttlecock – also referred to as a shuttle or birdie.

Racket – is most important tool made from carbon fiber or lightmeals.

Parts of the racket

- Head - Throat
- Stringed area - Handle
- Shaft

Court – Court 44 feet long, width is 22 feet for doubles 17 feet for singles.

Module# 3

Service – Service location follows points.

Types of Serve

- Low serve - Gentle low short serve.
- High serve – Singles use sereves.
- Flick serve – Shallow serve denies time.
- Drive serve - Fast flap deep serve.

Stroke - Proper strokes ensure quality shots.

4 Basic Stroke’s

- Overhead Forehand - Overhead Backhand
- Underarm Forehand - Underarm Backhand

4 Basic Shot in Badminton

- Clear - Drop
- Drive - Smash

Module# 4

Basic Stance/Ready Position

Attacking stance - Attacking stance enables smashes and deception.

V – Back X – Formation Y – Formation

Module# 5

Badminton Rules for Singles

The Serve: - Underarm - Below server’s waist

Format: Left is odd Right is Even.

Faults: Body contact and outside bounds hits.

Badminton Rules for Doubles

Coint Toss: - Begins with toss – First serve

Boundaries: - Serve inside white line – Diagonally

Format: Score determines server.

Switching Sides on Court: - Left is odd Right is Even

Scoring System: Best of 3 to 21 points, 60 secinds break when score reaches 11.